RATES OF ADVERTISING.

Newspaper proprietors generally, and especially of this rity, under the usages and regulations heretofore prevaling are called upon to perform more labor without remuneration, than any other class of community. The gratuitous publication of charity and religious advertisement, and communications, tributes of respect, obituaries, &c., &c., which can only be inserted at a heavy cost to the proprietor, imposes upon them a burden so propriets, that they feel called poses upon them a burden so onorous, that they feel called upon, in self-defence, to check the abuse, by making such publications a charge, to some extent at least, upon the partics more amediately interested. In this they are but fol-lowing the example of the press in other cities, impelled by a sense of its intrinsic propriety, and imperative duty to themselves. The subscribers have, therefore, united togeth-er in a mutual agreement, upon the to lowing specified terms or the subscriber of these seconds. or the publication of these as well as every sort of regular
